FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TravelCLICK Names Robert Post as President and Chief Executive Officer

Chicago (May 26, 2005) – TravelCLICK Inc., a leading provider of hotel e-commerce solutions, today announced the appointment of Robert Post to the position of President and Chief Executive Officer. He will succeed Richard W. Gray and Ray Cohen, founders and co-CEOs of the company. Mr. Gray will remain Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Post joined TravelCLICK in May 2004 as Chief Financial Officer. He has over 20 years of executive experience in travel and hospitality, as well as the home security and defense electronics industries. Prior to joining TravelCLICK, Mr. Post was the principal of Pconsulting LLC, an independent business consultancy to Fortune 500 and fast growth companies. Mr. Post is also a former executive of MICROS Systems, Inc. and Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

"TravelCLICK has experienced significant growth in its six year history, providing unique solutions that drive hotel competitive advantage and profitability," said Gray. "Bob is an experienced and talented leader who has made substantial contributions toward TravelCLICK's growth and strong financial performance. I want to express how excited we are at the prospect of Bob leading this extraordinary company and talented management team to even greater success in the years ahead."

"With superior products, technology and talent unlike any other travel company, TravelCLICK is well positioned for new levels of growth," said Post. "I feel privileged to follow Mr. Gray and Mr. Cohen, whose tremendous vision and enormous accomplishments have built this company into the travel industry leader it is today."
